Description	Date
Policy defines Dubbo Regional Council spokespeople (corporate and elected representatives) and procedures for engaging with and providing media commentary or media product to mainstream media.
Notes:

PURPOSE

The purpose of Council's Media Policy is to provide a framework to ensure a co-ordinated, consistent and accurate approach to managing media relations to enhance the region's reputation while mitigating the associated risks.

Any comment made to a journalist or member of a media organisation is to be consistent with this policy, Council's Code of Conduct Policy, Social Media Policy and accurately reflect the decisions and values of Dubbo Regional Council.

BACKGROUND AND REFERENCES

Council is committed to the four principles of media engagement which should underpin every aspect of Council's media activity. All council staff, council officials and Councillors should commit to upholding them:

- Openness
- Consistency
- Accuracy
- Timeliness

Council is also committed to four principal values that hold an overarching vision and purpose of the organisation, which should be represented in the approach taken when working with the media.

The values are:

- To be progressive
- To be sustainable
- To work as one team
- To account for all actions

The policy is to be read in conjunction with:

- Defamation Act 2005
- State Records Act 1998
- Copyright Act 1968
- Local Government Act 1993
- Privacy and Personal Protection Act 1998
- Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009
- Anti-Discrimination Act 1977
- Industry Codes of Practice, as identified by the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA). This includes the Broadcasting Services Act, Commercial Radio Code of Practice, and Community Radio Code of Practice.
- Dubbo Regional Council's Record Management Policy
- Dubbo Regional Council's Social Media Policy
- Dubbo Regional Council's Corporate Image Policy
- Dubbo Regional Council's Community Engagement and Communications Policy
- Dubbo Regional Council's Code of Conduct Policy

SCOPE

This policy applies to the Mayor, all Councillors, Council staff, contractors and volunteers when representing Council in the media. This policy applies to verbal and written comments in the media, public speaking engagements which includes industry conferences, industry publications/media, media releases and the use of social media. For specific social media requirements, refer to Council's Social Media Policy.

Concerns or complaints about the administration of a council's engagement with the media should be made to the council officer responsible for media management in the first instance.

STRUCTURE:

The Media Policy is structured as follows:

Part 1	Principles	Set out the principles of media engagement for councils
Part 2	Framework	Contains administrative framework for engagement with the media
Part 3	Engagement	Details those who are able to engage with the media and when
Part 4	Standards	Prescribes the standards of conduct expected of council officials when engaging on media in an official capacity or in connection with their role as a council official
Part 5	Emergencies	Prescribes who will be the media spokesperson to the media during emergencies
Part 6	Elections	Prescribes how councillors should engage with the media in the lead up to an election.
Part 7	Record management	Contains information about records management and privacy requirements relating to social media
Part 8	Definitions	Defines key words and people used in the Media Policy

PART 1 – PRINCIPLES

1.1 Dubbo Regional Council is committed to upholding and promoting the following principles of media engagement:

- Openness: We will ensure an open exchange of information between Council and the media.
- Consistency: We will ensure consistency by all councillors and staff when communicating with the media and that all spokespeople uphold the core values of Council.
- Accuracy: The information we share with the media will be a source of truth for our council and community and we will prioritise the need to correct inaccuracies when they occur.
- Timeliness: We will ensure that we respond to all media enquiries in a timely manner as long as reasonable deadlines are received.

PART 2 - ADMINISTRATIVE FRAMEWORK FOR ENGAGEMENT WITH THE MEDIA

2.1 The Chief Executive Officer will appoint a member of Council staff to be the Media Coordinator (*see definition), be this for a single project or for a wider variety of projects across the organisation. The coordinator will be a suitably qualified member of staff and by default is a staff member from the Communications Services Team.

2.2 The CEO may appoint more than one Media Coordinator, depending on the nature of the projects and scope of the responsibilities.

2.3 The role of the Media Coordinator is to:

General

- a) be the lead point of contact for all media enquiries, requests for interviews, requests to film or photograph council staff, facilities or events for news and current affairs purposes;
- b) ensure that media organisations and their representatives are treated professionally, equally and without bias; and
- c) provide guidance to councillors approached by the media for comment to avoid communication of misinformation.

Media Statements & Requests

- a) ensure that media enquiries are dealt with promptly;
- b) maintain a record of all media enquiries and responses;
- c) delegate to staff members to respond to media enquiries where appropriate;
- d) be responsible for preparing media statements prior to their release;
- e) ensure that media statements are approved by the Mayor and/or CEO prior to their release; and
- f) ensure that all media releases are published on the Council's website.

Delegated staff roles

- a) develop and/or approve media training and/or induction to be provided to delegated staff and/or councillors;
- b) maintain effective oversight of delegated staff;
- c) revoke a staff member's status as a delegated staff member when required; and
- d) maintain a register of delegated staff roles.

2.4 The following protocols underpin this policy:

General

- a) The Communications Services Team is the first points of contacts for Mayors, Councillors, Executive Leadership team and Council employees on all media-related issues.
- b) Councillors and Council employees who become aware of issues or potential issues that could lead to adverse media outcomes for Council should contact the Manager Strategic Partnerships and Investment, Team Leader Communication Services or Communication Services Partner.
- c) While social media platforms are not within the scope of this policy, the Social Media Policy outlines the responsibilities of elected representatives and employees using these channels.

Spokesperson/s

- d) The Mayor is the Council's official spokesperson on issues before the Council, Council policy and interpretation of policy and matters that may generate high community interest.
- e) Councillors are entitled to enter public debate and make comment on Council affairs provided they clearly state that such public comment reflects their personal opinion and not that of the Council (Council's Code of Conduct Policy applies). Once Council reaches a decision, the Mayor is the spokesperson.
- f) The CEO, or CEO's delegated representative, is the official spokesperson on issues relating to the management of Council operations and employees or actions or issues that may commit the Council's resources to any purpose.
- g) The Communications Services Team will determine the most appropriate spokesperson with issues cross over political and operational lines, in consideration of organisation and reputational risk.
- h) Council employees may be called on as subject matter experts based on their technical expertise to provide further detail and/or may be required to brief the Media Coordinator or approved spokesperson on the specific issue.
- i) Council employees may provide media comment on operational issues only that require specific subject matter expertise and are not related to any business currently before Council and are considered routine, not political, topical or high profile.

Media Statements (written and verbal)

- j) The Communications Services Team is responsible for managing media relations, preparing media releases, statements and quotes, identifying opportunities for positive promotion of Council and providing briefings and/or speaking notes for Mayor, Councillors, CEO, Executive Leadership Team and Council employees.
- k) All media statements must be approved by CEO, or CEO's delegated representative, prior to issue.
- l) All media releases and written statements prepared by the Communications Services Team will be distributed concurrently to all Councillors and the Executive Leadership Team.
- m) Council employees must not make political or controversial statements to the media relating to Council affairs, decisions and/or events, or about Council officials which are likely to generate negative publicity for Council (Council's Code of Conduct Policy applies)

Part 3 – WORKING WITH THE MEDIA

3.1 All media contacts / enquiries are handled by Council's Communications Services Team in the first instance, allowing enquiries to be logged, responded to and any subsequent coverage to be monitored and evaluated.

3.2 Media organisations and their representatives will be treated equally and without bias.
