29 Further Acts

29.1 Each Party must promptly execute all documents and do all things that another Party from time to time reasonably requests to effect, perfect or complete this Agreement and all transactions incidental to it.

29.2 The Parties may, at any time and from time to time, enter into agreements relating to the subject-matter of this Agreement that are not inconsistent with this Agreement for the purpose of implementing this Agreement.

 - 32.2.2 the exercise by Council of any statutory power, discretion or duty.
- 32.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as requiring Council to do anything that would cause it to be in breach of any of its obligations at law.

33 Good faith

- 33.1 Each party must act in good faith towards all other parties and use its best endeavours to comply with the spirit and intention of this deed.

34 Illegality

35 Severability

- 35.1 If a clause or part of a clause of this Agreement can be read in a way that makes it illegal, unenforceable or invalid, but can also be read in a way that makes it legal, enforceable and valid, it must be read in the latter way.

- 35.2 If any clause or part of a clause is illegal, unenforceable or invalid, that clause or part is to be treated as removed from this Agreement, but the rest of this Agreement is not affected.

- 37.3 A party may sign this Agreement electronically and bind itself accordingly. In addition, the intention is to print it out when so signed so that where a party prints it out, the first print-out by a party after all signatories who are signing have done so, will also be an executed original counterpart of this Agreement. Each signatory confirms that their signature appearing in this Agreement, including any such print-out (irrespective of which party printed it), is their personal signature.
- 37.4 A party which has executed a counterpart of this Agreement or its solicitor may exchange it with another party by sending a copy of that original executed counterpart by email to that other party or its solicitor and if requested by that other party or its solicitor must promptly deliver that original by hand or post. 39.3 Without limitation, a waiver may be expressed to be conditional on the happening of an event, including the doing of a thing by the Party to whom the waiver is given.

39.4 A waiver by a Party is only effective in relation to the particular obligation or breach in respect of which it is given, and is not to be taken as an implied waiver of any other obligation or breach or as an implied waiver of that obligation or breach in relation to any other occasion.

39.5 For the purposes of this Agreement, an obligation or breach of obligation the subject of a waiver is taken not to have been imposed on, or required to be complied with by, the Party to whom the waiver is given.
