...........................................................................................................

CHAIRMAN
To the Council                           Office of the Mayor
Ladies and Gentlemen                     Civic Administration Building
                                          Church Street, Dubbo

Following the Local Government elections held in September 2017, Council adopted a Committee and Working Party structure at an Extraordinary meeting of Council held 9 October 2017. As part of these committees, Council adopted a Rural Consultative Working Party that meets on a quarterly basis to address issues within villages of the Local Government Area. This Committee does not specifically address issues relating to the town of Wellington which is a significant town centre within the Local Government Area. It is therefore proposed that a specific committee, named the Wellington Town Assembly, be formed until September 2018 where the role of this committee will be assessed with Council’s Other Committees, Working Parties and Other Groups for a further report to Council at that time.

Wellington is the second largest population centre within the Dubbo Regional Council Local Government Area. It is considered appropriate that an advisory group be formed that shall consist of the Mayor, two (2) Councillors as determined by Council and five (5) residents of Wellington to be selected by Council following a public expression of interest process. As matters that exist in Wellington’s surrounding areas will be addressed within the Rural Consultative Working Party, these Community representative shall be from within the boundaries of the town of Wellington, including the nearby large lot residential estates and Nanima village. The chairman of the Wellington Town Assembly shall be the Mayor.

The role of the Wellington Town Assembly will be to act as an advisory group for matters affecting the town of Wellington and assist Councillors and Council staff who may wish to discuss upcoming projects or events in Wellington. This group does not have any formal decision making capability and does not make recommendations to Council.
RECOMMENDATION

1. That Council form a Wellington Town Assembly to meet on a quarterly basis on the first Monday of March, June, September and December at 5.30pm at the Wellington Administration Building consisting of the Mayor, two (2) Councillors as determined by Council and five (5) community representatives, noting that these representatives are to be residents of the township of Wellington, including the nearby large lot residential estates and Nanima village.

2. That Council determine the two (2) Councillor representatives on the Wellington Town Assembly.

3. That Council invite public expressions of interest for five (5) community representatives for membership to the Wellington Town Assembly for a further report to Council to determine these representatives.

4. That the role of the Wellington Town Assembly is to act as an advisory group for matters affecting the town of Wellington and assist Councillors and Council staff who may wish to discuss upcoming projects or events in Wellington, noting that this advisory group does not have any formal decision making capability and does not make recommendations to Council.

5. That the Mayor retain chairmanship of the Wellington Town Assembly.

Councillor Ben Shields
Mayor
Web streaming of Council meetings is becoming commonplace throughout Local Government in NSW. This provides additional accountability and transparency by Council to the public by allowing a greater audience to view the Council meeting in real time or at a later time convenient to the viewer. This facility will also allow residents who are located a significant distance from Council Chambers, or who have limited access to transport, to view the Council meetings at their convenience.

The introduction of web streaming will require the installation of fixed, high quality video cameras in both the Dubbo Chamber and Wellington Chamber as Council meetings will be conducted in each of these locations. It is proposed to install three (3) cameras in the Dubbo Chamber, as the majority of Council meetings will occur at that location, and a single camera in the Wellington Chamber to allow continuity of recorded meetings.

Council’s General Manager has advised that “initial investigations have revealed a number of solutions available to Council however the investment will require a quotation process to be undertaken to ensure the best possible outcome for Council. Notwithstanding, these initial investigations have found that the likely cost of an enterprise solution covering both Dubbo and Wellington Chambers would be approximately $30,000 for installation and commissioning and an ongoing cost of up to $15,000 per annum to host the archive of recorded video. This pricing is based on indicative pricing provided by a video streaming company that provides these services to a number of NSW councils including Mid-Western Regional Council, Queanbeyan-Palerang Regional Council, Wollongong City Council and City of Parramatta. This indicative price not only provides the video cameras but also an archive and hosting facility for the recorded video to allow these meetings to be available to the public for up to 4 years. The service also adds place markers, similar to chapters, so viewers can isolate the agenda item they wish to view without viewing the entire meeting”

The General Manager has also advised that “the required funding would be available in Council’s 2017/2018 budget for this purpose”.

It is recommended that the General Manager be requested to take the necessary action to implement web streaming of Council’s Ordinary meetings, Extraordinary meetings and Standing Committees for those sections of these meetings that are open to the public.
RECOMMENDATION

1. That the General Manager be requested to take the necessary action to implement web streaming of Council’s Ordinary meetings, Extraordinary meetings and Standing Committees for those sections of these meetings that are open to the public.

2. That the necessary funding be allocated at the December 2017 review of Council’s 2017/2018 Operational Plan and budget.

Councillor Ben Shields
Mayor
On 28 September 2017, following the election to the office of Mayor, I expressed a commitment to a range of new social initiatives that aim to break the link between intergenerational social disadvantage and substance abuse, criminal behaviour and other social problems.

To confirm, the direction I proposed for council in my inaugural speech included this statement:

“The day has come when as a region we must take our social issues seriously. Despite the good work of our police, our crime rates are too high and too many lives are being wasted by drugs, unemployment and poor parenting and the crimes that happen as a consequence.”

I also said that I support a new committee of council that is:

“Designed to help people and families break the link between intergenerational social disadvantage and substance abuse, criminal behaviour and other social problems.”

During my address to council, I stressed that we should support a residential drug rehabilitation facility in our region, a Drug Court, a Youth Koori Court and Justice Reinvestment initiatives.

Some of these initiatives are the direct responsibility of other tiers of government, for example the establishment of a Drug Court and a Youth Koori Court are clearly state government responsibilities. Obviously, Council does not have legislative powers to direct other tiers of government to action requests made by Council.

Others however, such as a residential rehabilitation facility for Dubbo and a commitment to projects designed to implement the objectives of justice reinvestment, can be implemented in cooperation with other levels of government and the private and/or community sector.

The strength of Council’s role will come largely from its grass roots linkages with community and its ability to facilitate and engage with government agencies and the community from a position of trust.
We also must however be aware of our broad power to provide services and indeed, acknowledge the diversity of roles Council already plays in our community.

Council can also play a powerful advocacy role in channelling and expressing community sentiment. Such is the power and role of local government.

I for one do not accept that our capacity to act on these social issues is subject to a veto from any other level of government, or that we must rely solely on political will elsewhere in order to act on these issues.

We are the grassroots level of government; with a broad range of powers under our legislation. We have the ability to assist our community achieve sustainable solutions to complex social problems. Accordingly, during this term of Council we should aim to work cooperatively with government and the community to put in place innovative solutions for the community.

Over a number of years there has been significant work undertaken by a variety of people associated with community based organisations and professional officers involved in the justice sector, aimed at addressing various social problems. It is important that Councillors be aware of this work.

In this regard, the issue of a Drug Court for Dubbo has seen much work previously undertaken analysing the benefits and logistics of establishing such a Court. A significant body of information is available to the sector and lessons learned could be applied in the Dubbo context.

In correspondence from the then Attorney General in July 2015, Council was advised that the Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research (BOCSAR) has conducted two evaluations on the Drug Court.

The first evaluation was conducted in 2002 and determined that despite the high drop-out rate of about 40%, the NSW Drug Court Program proved more cost-effective than imprisonment in reducing the number of drug offences and equally cost effective in delaying the onset of further offending.

The second evaluation was conducted in 2008 and determined that the NSW Drug Court is more cost-effective than prison in reducing the rate of re-offending among offenders whose crime is drug related. It would seem an obvious and exciting initiative to bring to Dubbo.

In respect of the proposal to establish a Koori Court in Dubbo, such a court is being trialled in Sydney with the basic premise being that, similar to Drug Court, if a person makes appropriate progress towards rehabilitation during proceedings, then that progress is reflected in sentence outcomes that prioritise rehabilitation and integration into the community. Our community can learn the lessons of Sydney based trials and be the first regional centre to benefit from such a program.
In regards to a residential rehabilitation facility, the Dubbo Integrated Drug Alcohol and Mental Health Committee was formed in 2014 from a number of stakeholder organisations and in 2016 submitted a proposal for the development of such a facility to the NSW Government.

The stakeholders included, Legal Aid NSW, Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, Western NSW Community Legal Centre, Aboriginal Legal Service, Justice Health, Medicare Local, Lyndon Community, Community Corrections, Western NSW Local Area Health District and the Orana Law Society.

We should aim to reinvigorate and build on this foundation and reach out to explore what model of rehabilitation centre our community needs and wants. Council I believe can lead in this work.

Justice Reinvestment is a concept that suggests that strategic community-driven investment in localised early intervention, prevention and diversionary solutions can reduce crime, build local capacity and strengthen local communities.

A trial is currently being undertaken in Bourke and research with Australian National University is being undertaken in Cowra.

Dubbo and Wellington can benefit from these trials and studies.

However, all of the initiatives of which I have spoken above fall squarely within the rubric of justice reinvestment.

In this sense we should not think about individual projects as separate from the principles of justice reinvestment. They all have the same aim, attack crime by attacking the causes of crime.

Moving forward, I point to my earlier inaugural speech comments:

“(that I) ensure (will) the necessary council resources, including project officers and other resources, are allocated to ensure we can secure these and other projects”.

To fulfil the commitments I have made, I propose that council form a short term working party to create a coherent policy direction in respect of these issues.

Once this working party is able to formulate a clear and substantial policy direction, I envisage bringing to council a substantial policy document addressing how Council can play a more substantial role in addressing long standing entrenched problems.

This policy document will need to be the subject of community consultation and ultimately be incorporated into the overall strategic documents that guide the work of Council.
Councillors, it is increasingly accepted across Australia that council can lead on social issues. The time has come in our region for Council to emphasise a stronger push in this direction. Much work has been done by our staff, non-government agencies and government agencies, however more is needed to be done.

We readily accept the role of Council in a range of areas of service provision and advocacy that are well beyond the traditional roads, rates and rubbish. We play a crucial role in economic development for example.

In my view the time has come to question certain distinctions we have long accepted about the role of local government and the distinction between the “economic” and the “social”.

Nowhere is this truer than in the Wellington community. We need to act to address not just social problems and crime, but the perception of them. It is this perception that can be equally as damaging to our development as the reality.

All councillors are passionate about this subject matter. And rightly so. There is nothing more important as a community than government acting to ensure all children have a bright future that no one is left behind trapped in intergenerational cycles of disadvantage and dysfunction.

We must channel this passion in the best possible way, and ensure that our efforts are consistent with the role of local government and the proper use of rate payer’s money.

We must also ensure that all our efforts throughout are based on one premise. That crime must be fought and all appropriate measures taken, proper punishment.

We must, as I said on 28 September, be tough on crime, our community expects no less. But we must also be just as tough on the causes of crime.

That is what this initiative is designed to achieve.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That Council note that Dubbo Regional Council should be playing a greater role in helping people and families break the link between intergenerational social disadvantage and substance abuse, criminal behavior and other social problems.
2. That Council note that a greater role in addressing crime related social problems will help to reduce the scourge of entrenched high regional crime rate.
3. That Council note that addressing social problems is key to bringing to an end the overrepresentation of our Indigenous peoples in the criminal justice system.
4. That Council endorse the principles of the ‘justice reinvestment’ concept and notes the trial currently being conducted in Bourke.
5. That Council notes the work being undertaken by local government in Burnie, Tasmania in identifying and addressing social problems.
6. That the General Manager be requested to provide a report to Council in December 2017 on the ‘Burnie Works’ initiative underway, summarising and analysing
   • What work is occurring,
   • What role local government is playing; and
   • Whether and how the initiative could be adapted to the Dubbo region.

7. That a Working Party of the Mayor, four Councillors and relevant staff be established to formulate a draft policy document detailing how Council can lead in addressing entrenched social problems in our community.

8. That this document include a clear policy direction relating to the implementation in the region of:
   • A new committee of council designed to help people and families break the link between intergenerational social disadvantage and substance abuse, criminal behavior and other social problem;
   • Drug Court;
   • A Residential Rehabilitation Centre;
   • A Youth Koori Court; and
   • Justice Reinvestment initiatives.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Following a recent amendment to the Local Government Act 1993, in accordance with Section 233A(1), Councillors must take an oath of office or make an affirmation of office at or before the first meeting of the Council after the Councillor is elected. I advise that Council hosted an event on Monday 25 September 2017 to conduct the taking of the oath/affirmation of Councillors. This event was attended by Council’s Administrator, all Councillors, Council’s General Manager and members of the Executive Leadership Team and approximately 60 people representing Councillors’ families and friends. Media were also in attendance and the event was broadcast through a number of media channels.

REPORT

Following a recent amendment to the Local Government Act 1993, in accordance with Section 233A(1), Councillors must take an oath of office or make an affirmation of office at or before the first meeting of the Council after the Councillor is elected. I advise that Council hosted an event on Monday 25 September 2017 to conduct the taking of the oath/affirmation of Councillors. This event was attended by Council’s Administrator, all Councillors, Council’s General Manager and members of the Executive Leadership Team and approximately 60 people representing Councillors’ families and friends. Media were also in attendance and the event was broadcast through a number of media channels.

Councillors took the oath or made the affirmation before the General Manager, who was in attendance, in accordance with section 233A(2) of the Local Government Act.

Of the ten (10) Councillors, the following Councillors undertook an oath of office:

  Councillor Jane Diffey
  Councillor Dayne Gumley
  Councillor Annemarie Jones OAM
  Councillor Greg Mohr
  Councillor Kevin Parker
  Councillor John Ryan
  Councillor Ben Shields

The remaining Councillors made an affirmation of office being:

  Councillor Vicki Etheridge
  Councillor David Grant
  Councillor Stephen Lawrence

Each Councillor was subsequently signed a copy of the oath or affirmation respectively which will be placed on display in the Dubbo Civic Administration Building Council chamber.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The 2017 Local Government NSW Annual Conference is to be held in Sydney at the Hyatt Regency Hotel from 4 to 6 December 2017.

Following consideration of Council’s draft Policy in respect of the “Payment of Expenses and Provision of Facilities for the Mayor and Councillors”, at the October 2017 Economic Development, Business and Corporate Committee, it is proposed that attendance at the Local Government NSW Conference be as follows:

- The Mayor (or his nominee)
- Three (3) other Councillors as delegates

Council must also determine an alternate delegate (to act as delegate if required).

The Policy also provides for attendance by “Councillors as determined by Council” and the General Manager (or nominee), as observers.

Having regard to the proposal from the Committee, the background to the change in the number of delegates from two to three is that Council received advice from Local Government NSW on 10 October 2017 advising that Council has been allocated four voting entitlements for voting on motions and four voting entitlements for voting in the Board election. This is a recently introduced process whereby the Council could be allocated a different number of voting delegates for each of these voting processes and this also allows that they can be a different four people as voting delegates in each process.

It is now proposed that Council determine three Councillor delegates in addition to the Mayor to act as voting delegates and determine the attendance of other Councillors as observers. It is proposed that the three Councillors in addition to the Mayor are Council’s nominated delegates for both the voting on motions and the voting on board nominations.

ORGANISATIONAL VALUES

Customer Focused: Attendance at the conference provides representation from Council to provide input to the decision and policy making process for NSW Local Government.
Integrity: Council will adopt a policy for the Payment of Expenses and Provision of Facilities for the Mayor and Councillors in the near future which will address attendance at this conference into the future. Time constraints do not allow adoption of this policy prior to the date of the conference.

One Team: All Councillors are given the opportunity to attend the conference and final attendance is determined by the Council.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Funding has been provided in the Governance budget to enable Councillors to attend the Local Government NSW Annual Conference 2017.

POLICY IMPLICATIONS

There are no policy implications arising from this report.

RECOMMENDATION

That Council determine the three Councillor voting delegates, alternate voting Councillor and the Councillor observers to attend the Local Government NSW Conference to be held in Sydney at Hyatt Regency from 4 to 6 December 2017.

REPORT

The Dubbo Regional Livestock Markets (DRLM) has multiple health and safety hazards for its employees and users including animal handling, working at heights, confined spaces, hot works, heavy traffic, use of chemicals, cleaning and noise amongst others.

The saleyard is a large 24-hour operation and requires a concise but achievable Work Health and Safety (WHS) system. The DRLM has developed an overarching Work Health and Safety Audit Checklist that combines the supplementary internal checklists from the various work groups. These measures have been put into place with a series of self and independent audits and ensures any potential hazards and risks are identified and acted on in a practical manner.

Regular safety messaging through various channels including the DRLM quarterly newsletter is communicated to the users and stakeholders and a health and safety notice board is maintained which allows for continuous improvement to make the facility a safer environment.

The Livestock Markets is one of the largest contributors to economic growth in the region. In the 2016/2017 financial year the throughput included, 199,431 head of cattle and 1,437,030 head of sheep.

The Dubbo Regional Livestock Markets are audited annually by the National Saleyards Quality Assurance program with continued assistance provided by Council’s WHS Worksafe Advisor and Worksafe NSW in order to ensure high standards of WHS procedures are provided.
