State Budget a Golden Opportunity for Dubbo Region to Secure Rehab Centre

The NSW Budget has been delayed to November because of COVID but that gives Council a chance to lobby for much-needed Alcohol and Other Drug Rehabilitation facility.

Historic Land Swap Deal to Shape Future of Victoria Park Cultural Precinct

Last week I was part of a historic land swap deal with Dubbo RSL that means Council now owns the entire block that includes Victoria Park, the Dubbo Aquatic Leisure Centre and Western Plains Cultural Centre.

Constant Evolution Ensures Council Remains at the Top of its Game

One of the things I am particularly proud of at Dubbo Regional Council is the constant evaluation of processes and attempts to make improvements.

Dubbo Region Bucking COVID Trend with Booming Local Economy

Properties in Wellington are in demand and Dubbo housing and rental markets are tight, proving the region is recovering from COVID better than expected.

D-Day Looms for Macquarie Conservatorium as they Face Uncertain Future

The Conservatorium's lease on the old Dubbo Infants School on Bultje Street will expire on December 31 2022 and unless something happens, they will be without a home.
