

MAYOR OF THE DUBBO REGION - BEN SHIELDS

Councillor Ben Shields was first elected to the former Dubbo City Council in 1999 as an 18-year-old who was still studying for his Higher School Certificate.

Councillor Shields is a fifth generation local of Dubbo and has a small advertising and marketing consultancy business.

Since his election to Council back in 1999, Councillor Shields has served 10 years on the board of Local Government NSW (previously Local Government Association of NSW).

In 2012, Councillor Shields was elected Deputy Mayor of the former Dubbo City Council.

At the 2016 merger of the former Dubbo City and Wellington Councils, Councillor Shields was appointed as an advisor to the Local Representation Committee whose job was to advise the new council administrator until elections could take place for the new Regional Council in September 2017.

Following the 2017 Council elections, Councillor Shields was elected as the first Mayor of Dubbo Regional Council.

Room to grow for Wellington's retail sector

During my regular Meet the Mayor visits to Wellington, a constant theme that comes up from people who come to see me is the long-term viability of the town, especially its retail sector.

Bush Summit is Dubbo's chance to shine

Thursday will be a great opportunity for Dubbo and Western NSW to really show our nation's political leaders exactly what the issues facing the bush are.

Cheaper fares will be better for everyone

I have often said that even if Dubbo Council were to build the world's best airport, it would be pointless if it were to be too expensive for our residents to fly.

Sporting projects officially opened at Wellington

Monday afternoon was great for Wellington with the official opening of three projects for the town including Rygate Park.

Passion on show during Council's budget debate

Monday night was one of the most fiercely-debated Council meetings that Dubbo has seen and I couldn't be prouder of the discussion that took place.
