

GET YOUR LAUGHS READY FOR THE MELBOURNE INTERNATIONAL COMEDY FESTIVAL

The Melbourne International Comedy Festival is hitting the open road with a bumper line up performing at over 70 locations, including Dubbo!

In its 25th year Australia's biggest and best comedy festival is on the road again, home delivering some of the best and funniest comedians to every corner of the nation. The Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow will visit Dubbo Regional Theatre on Friday 23 June 2023.

The comedy night will be hosted by Brett Blake, with special guests Prue Blake, Matt Ford, Blake Freeman and Chris Ryan.

When curating the line-up, the producer ensures there's a good mix of delivery styles, genders and topics. Blake Freeman is known for his energetic and honest brand of comedy, Prue Blake has an intelligent yet cheeky delivery style and Matt Ford carries the demeanour of a cranky 40 year old with acerbic observations. Then there's newcomer Chris Ryan, a journalist and mum with an interesting take on everything from romance to passive aggressive co-workers. Self-identifying bogan genius Brett Blake is a whip-smart and high spirited MC that ties the hilarious evening together.

"Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow is a popular annual inclusion in the Season program", said Dubbo Regional Theatre and Convention Centre Manager, Linda Christof.

"It is also the top pick for our sponsors Centre Stage Sponsor MAAS, Top Hat Sponsor, David Payne Constructions and Chorus Line Sponsor Duncan McGinness Veterinary Surgeon when the Season program is first launched."

Audiences can expect to see familiar favourites from this year's Festival line-up, alongside the most talked-about breakthrough stars of the moment all jam-packed into one show-stopping night of laughs.
