

AUSTRALIA DAY AWARD NOMINATIONS – NOW OPEN

Dubbo Regional Council (DRC) is now seeking nominations to recognise outstanding citizens living in our community ahead of the annual Australia Day awards.

DRC Mayor Mathew Dickerson said it was a great opportunity to recognise community members who had made a significant contribution to the region.

“The Dubbo Region has no shortage of nominees with so many people excelling in their chosen field. What better way to acknowledge the great work they do than to honour them with a nomination for an Australia Day Award.”

“We have a number of categories for the awards, aimed at ensuring people are recognised across all areas and across the region,” Cllr Dickerson said.

Award nominations are being accepted in both Dubbo and Wellington for the following categories:

Dubbo:

- Citizen of the Year
- Senior Citizen of the Year
- Young Citizen of the Year
